

The decree 58/2011, of 20 May, which establishes the general principles in the field of youth facilities located in the territorial area of the Balearic Islands, determines, in its article 3, referring to people users:

- Youth accommodation facilities are aimed at children, young people and groups of children and young people, whose age is not more than 30 years, to carry out free time educational activities and leisure and training activities.

- However, people over the age of 30 can use the youth facilities with the following conditions:

a) Juvenile facilities can be occupied, at the same time as for groups of children or young people, for their parents, guardians, teachers, educators or monitors, provided they participate jointly in educational activities or organise organisational tasks or of support.

b) Also, families and adult groups can use unusually youth facilities if they guarantee the use of these facilities to be for social and educational purposes. It is understood that a juvenile facility performs a social and educational function when it hosts activities framed in non-formal learning content and leisure pedagogy. In any case, the groups of children and young people have priority in the recruitment, respecting the order of seniority of the date in which it is made, and in the use of the common spaces of the installation, trying to meet the needs of all the groups that share it at that time.

c) In the cases of the previous section and, in general, in youth hostels, families and other adults have their stay limited to ten consecutive days, extendable if the demand for places by children and youngsters allows it and while the social function of the installation is not compromised.

- The age limitation established in the first paragraph of this article is not applicable to people over 30 years of age who have the youth hostel membership card (REAJ) or any other. The type of accreditation that this Network recognises as valid, which may be used by the hostels of the Youth Hostel Network of the Balearic Islands provided there is availability of places for lack of demand of the users mentioned in the first paragraph of this article.

- To enjoy the services offered by youth hostels on the network of the International Youth Hostels Federation, you must be in possession of the corresponding hostel's license.
